SPIRITUALISM RENOUNCED.-Quite a commotion was recently excited among the spiritualists of Piymouth, Massachusetts, by the announcement of Miss Lizzie Doten, the principal medium of that place, that she could not conscientiously speak to them again as a medium. She said that she feared that she had been laboring under a delusion, and as she considered herself responsible to God for what her lips uttered, and for the influence which her words exerted upon those who heard her, she was unwilling to be made the medium of any other spirit than her own. "If," said she, "the angel Gabriel should stand by my side and ask me to deliver a message to you from him, I s would reply, Gabriel, speak for yourself! Hereafter I shall address you in my own natural and conscious state." This change in her views was brought about through the influence of a Professor who had been delivering a course of lectures in the town on the "phenomena of nerves," and against modern spiritualism.

A MONSTER OMNIBUS .- The largest omnibus in France is to be found in the small town of Cavaillon, and the origin of it is somewhat singular. The proprietor of an extensive silk spinning mill in that place employs about 80 women or young girls, most of whom belong to the surrounding villages, and are in the habit of spending the Sunday with their families. For that purpose, they were accustomed to start on the Saturday evening and walk distances varying from 3 to 12 miles, and return on the Sunday evening more fatigued than by a long day's work. In order to remedy that inconvenience, their employer had this omni-bus constructed, which has two rows of seats, one over the other, and can contain about 60 passengers. When the mill is closed on Saturday evening, four strong horses are attached to it, and it conveys the females to their respective villages, and on Sunday evening proceeds to collect and bring them back.

VOL. XI.

WASHINGTON, D. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1858.

NO. 1,682.

A CANTON PRIEST'S HIDDEN TREASURE .-

Some days since a poor priest presented himself at headquarters in abject garb and squal-lid plight, and told a piteous tale to the General how his little personal property, and his only change of raiment, lay in the Monastery of Celestial Bliss, now occupied by Colonel Hecker and his battalion. The General at once gave him an order to remove all his property from the place, and the priest prudently waited till the Colonel and the major part of his officers and men were absent on a reconnoissance. He then presented his order, and was led about by the officers of the day to recognize his property. The poor priest was accompanied by some servitors of his order. With their assistance he opened the pedestal of an untouched idol, and lo! a bar of solid gold and several bars of silver were exposed to the view of the astonished soldiery. Proceeding to another image, he abstracted some stones of great magnitude and price. Then he borrowed a ladder, and mounting to the roof, re-moved a sheathing, and behold! a magazine of richly embroidered silks, and costly furs, all of which were duly piled upon the shoulders of the poor brethren. The guard were almost frantic, but the order was imperative. The poor priest was a true Chinaman.

Having succeeded so far, he pushed his rights to the utmost. Lying about were some trophies and small matters which the absent soldiers had gathered together in other places and brought to these quarters. They also were put together. All was carried off, and when the reconneitering party returned to their quarters they found them swept but not garnished. Nothing was left but the whole in the roof and the disemboweled joss.

JERROLD'S WIT .- " Douglas Jerrold's Wit," ust published in a neat volume by Ticknor & Fields, improves upon every fresh reading, though there is considerable in it which is not wiser or wittier than other people have written. Some of his illustrations are excellent. Take this, for instance, and we need not go to a cabinet minister to find specimens of the bear : "It occasionally happens that the bear affoat on an iceberg drifts into a warmer latitude than the latitude of eternal frost, and as the iceberg melts and melts under the increasing heat, the bear shifts and shifts, finding his footing passing from beneath him, and at lenght howls piteously, to know the dissolution of the iceberg must in time occur. We would not compare a minister of State to a polar bear, nevertheless, even a chancellor of the exchequer, as he finds Parl'a: ment melting and a dissolution inevitable, will sometimes change his music."

Here is a story which is exceedingly funny, too humorous some think, to be Jerrold's own

"We have heard of a man, reasonable in all other matters, who declared that he had been ruined, all his vast property swallowed, by an earthquake. But when asked by strangers, 'What earthquake-and where?' the ruined man, with a deeper look of injury upon him, would reply confidentially, 'That's it, that's just it. That earthquake, sir was most shamefully hushed up.""

This is good, about the Jacobite and the whig who quarrelled, and when one of them cried out, "I spit upon your king Willaim," and the other, "I spit upon your James the Second," Jerrold rung the bell and shouted, " Waiter! spittoons for two!" So is his reason for the fall." " Eve," Jerrold said, "ate the apple that she might dress." What is better than

STRANGE ACCOUNTS FROM LIBERIA.-The Farmville (Va.) Journal notices the return from Liberia of two slaves who were emancipated by the late John Watson, of Prince Edward county. The sum of $4,000 was left by Mr. Watson to carry sixty of his slaves to that Republic. They give a very discouraging account of the trip out and their treatment after they arrived. The Journal says:

Before leaving the ship, the agent of the Colonization Society induced the emigrants to purchase quantities of cheap calico, brass jewelry, &c., assuring them that they would need such articles in their new home, but on their arrival they found that they had been deceived and defrauded out of their money. The provisions carried out for their support for the first six months were sold daily before their eyes, and they were compelled to buy provisions every day, often of very inferior quality and insufficient in quantity. The agent employed by the Society would sell to the bakers, and the bakers to the em grants-their own provisions - it exorbitant prices, the agent receiving part

On their arrival they only received a half acre of land, instead of the five acres promised. They found provisions at exorbitant prices, and a good deal of bad treatment besides from the authorities. They allege that the President of the colony, if not engaged in the slave trade, connives at it.

They have returned to slavery, believing that freedom to the negro in Africa is the greatest curse that could possibly befall him; and that had the Liberians the means of getting away seven-eighths of them would gladly return to the United States and serve the hardest masters to be found in the South, feeling that the condition of the slave here is far preferable to that of the most favored of the inhabitants of Liberia.

Use of PAIN. -Sir Humphrey Davy, when a boy, with the defiant constancy of youth, which had as yet suffered nothing, held the opinion that pain was no evil. He was refuted by a crab who bit his toe when he was bathing, and made him roar loud enough to be heard half a mile off. If he had maintained instead that pain was good, his doctrine would have been unimpeachable. Unless the whole constitution of the world were altered, our very existence depends upon our sensibility to suf-fering. An anecdote, which is quoted by Dr. Carpenter, in his " Principles of Human Physiology," from the "Journal of a Naturalist," nows the fatal effects of a temporary suspension of this law of our nature' A drover went to sleep on a winter's evening upon the platform of a lime-kiln, with one leg resting upon the stones which had been piled up to burn through the night. That which was gentle warmth when he lay down, became a consuming fire before he rose up. His foot was burnt off above the ankle, and when roused in the morning by the man who superintended the limekiln, he put his stump, unconscious of his misfortune, to the ground, the extremity crumbled into fragments. Whether he had been lulted into terpor by the carbonic acid driven off from the limestone, or whatever else may have been the cause of his insensibility, he felt no pain, and through his very exemption from this lot of humanity, expired a fortnight afterwards in Bristol Hospital. Without the warning voice of pain, life would be a series of similar disasters .- London Quarterly.

STERNE REBUKED .- Sterne being in company with three or four clergymen, was relating a After preaching at the cathedral, an old woman, whom he observed sitting on the pulpit stairs, stepped him as he came down, and begged to know where she should have the honor of hearing him preach the next Sunday. Mr.

Sterne having mentioned the place where he was to exhibit, found her situated in the same manner on that day; when she put the same question to him as before.

The following Sunday he was to preach four miles out of York, which he told her; and to his great surprise, found her there too; and, that the same question was put to him as he descended from the pulpit. On which, adds he, I took for my text these words, expecting to find my old wo nan as before : "I will grant the request of this poor widow, lest by her often coming, she weary me." One of the company immediately replied. "Why, Sterne, you omitted the most applicable part of the passage, which is, 'Though I neither fear God nor regard man." This unexpected retort silenced the wit for the whole evening.

DESIRABLE FARM IN CULPEPER COUNTY, VA., FOR SALE.—The Editor of the Evening Star is authorized to sell, on very occommodating terms and at a low price, one of the most desirable farms in the County of Cultep-er. It contains about 500 acres, of which 20 are woodland, and the residue arable land, in a fine condition for cultivation. This tract is situated about three miles from Culpeper Court House. It has upon it a small dwelling-nouse and ordinary farm buildings. All the arable land not in cultivation is well set in grass. To a gentleman seeking a country residence this farm offers attractions not surpassed, if equalled, in Piedmont Virginia. A building site upon the farm commands a fine mountain prospect, and a view of the surrounding country for many miles.
The soil is of excellent original quality, and peculiarly adapted to the production of wheat, and is at present in a good state of improvement. The owner will sell it for less than its value, if early application is made. Persons wishing to purchase will please communicate with W. D. WALLACH, Esq., Edap 9-lawtf SUPERIOR MUSICAL INSTRUCTION. Prof. DE C(ENIEL, (formerly Principal of the Music Department at Patapaco Institute, Md...) having been induced to come and locate permanently in this city, begs to inform the Musical public of Washington, Georgetown, and their vicinities, that he will give, to a limited number of special pupils advanced in Music, a thorough practical course of instruction on the Harp, Piar oforte, Guitar, Singing, and Organ. His general reputation already known as a composer, will, he hopes, be sufficient guarantee for his proficiency and ability as a Professor.

Professor.

Prof. De Cæniel will also give a regular course of Instruction (confidential y) in the Art of Teaching, to those who do not yet find themselves competent to teach, or to those who may wish to make Music a profession; showing the only true and practical method to pursue for imparting a strictly thorough Musical Education, clasically formed and condensed into eight sections or parts, and when duly qualified will receive a printed Certificate of Merit and Competency as a Professed Teacher.

If Orders received for the selection of the best Instruments without charge. Instruments without charge.

LITT. W. TAZEWELL. I have tried a pair of Spectables obtained from Mr. Tobias, and find them of great assistance to my eight, and corresponding with his description of their focus. I recommend him as a skillful opticism.

HENRY A. WISE.

PETERSBURG, October 21, 1854.

About five years ago, I obtained from Mr. Tobias, in Washington, a pair of Glasses for the spectacles which I used, and found them of great assistance to iny decaying vision; and my opinion of him is, that he is skillful in the preparation of Glasses for eyes not too far gone to be benefitted by such aid.

J. F. MAY.

LYNCHEURG, November 10, 1854.

Mr. John Tobias, having furnished me with Glasses, by which I have been greatly aided, (my vision having suffered greatly from reading at night in my earlier life,) it allords me the highest pleasure to say that I consider him a skillful practical opticism, and well prepared to aid those who may need his professional services.

WM. B. ROUZIE,
Elder of the Methodist Conference. WILMINGTON, N. C., June 27, 1854. WILMINGTON, N. C., June 27, 1854.

MR. J. Tobias—Dear Sir: I am happy to say that the Spectacles which I obtained from you last week are entirely satisfactory. From an inequality in the visual range of my eyes, I have heretofore found great difficulty in getting glasses of the proper focal distances. It affords me pleasure to state, that by the aid of your optometer this difficulty has been happily obviated, so that the Glasses you furnished me are decidedly the best adapted to my eyes of any I have everyet used.

Very respectfully yours, R. B. DRANE. Rector of St. James' Parish Having been induced by a friend to visit the establishment of Mr. Tobias for the purpose of trying his glasses I was furnished with a pair elightly colored bine, whice have afforded me more relief and gratification than any I have ever tried. My sight, originally very good, was injured by writing and reading at night, frequently to a very late hour: but with the aid of these glasses I can study almost as late as ever, and that too without the pain I have previously suffered.

Late Commissioneer Gen'l Land Office. I have essed Mr. Tobias's Spectacles for three or four months, and take great pleasure in saying that I am much pleased with them. I have been much benefited by them. GEO. P. SCARBURGH.

May 5th, 1856. I was recommended to Mr. John Tobias as a skilfe optician; and as I have eyes of remarkable peculiari-ty, I was gratified to find that Mr. Tobias seemed to comprehend them by inspection and some shight measurement, and he has made me a pair of Specta-cles that suits me admirably. Washing row, Aug. 8, 1856.

Having been for years under the hecessity of havtwo sets of glasses—one for use in daylight, and one for lamp-light—I procured one set from Mr. Tobias which answered both purposes. I have used his for several months, and find them excellent.

EDWARD STUBBS. Of Department of State. Mr. J. Tobias. Sir: The pair of Spectacles you Mr. J. Tobias. Ser: The pair of Spectacles you furnished me yesterday are particularly satisfactory to me. They are very decidedly the best I possess, and I am the owner of eight or nine pairs, carefully selected in different places and from opticians recommended to me on account of their professional standing in France, England, and the United States, I have been also pleased with your remarks and directions on the treatment of the eyes, for the putpose of preserving and improving the sight.

Respectfully yours, CHS, CALDWELL, Prefersor of M. C., Louisville, Ky.

After most careful examination of Mr. J. Tobias's Glanses, I am enabled to testify that their hardness, clearness, polishing, and exact optical shape render them particularly recommendable to those whose merely optical impairment of the eyes are in want of such auxiliaries. I consider, moreover, Mr. Tobias fully qualified to determine the focus of the eye, both by his optical knowledge and experience, and by means of his optometer. In addition, I can further state that Mr. Tobias has supplied some of my patients with Glasses, to their and my satisfaction.

LEWIS BAUER, M. D..

Norrole, Va., July 27, 1884.

In the experience of even two years, I have found great difficulty in obtaining Spectacles that were exactly adapted to the weakness of my sight. This inconvenience Mr. Tobias seems to have removed for the present by the substitution for me of better and more suitable Glasses. They are clear, chrystal-like and comfortable to my eyes. I would commend him. and comfortable to my eyes. I would commend him to those who from age or other infirmity require artificial aid in this way.

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 16, 1854.

To persons who have had the sight of their eyes re-

To persons who have had the sight of their eyes to impaired as to require the use of Glasses, I would recommend Mr. John Tobias as a suitable person from whom to obtain such Glasses as they may require, as he has suited me with a pair of Spectacles for a far and near sight. My sight has been impaired very much by a service of years in the Post Office Department, which berth required me to be on duty from II o'clock at night till after day, during which time I used but one light.

W. A. WALKER,

time I used but one light.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR, May 8, 1855.

From natural defects and the unequal range of my eyes, I have been compelled to use glasses for several years. I have tried different opticians without obtaining glasses perfectly fitted to my eyes. Four months since Mr. Tobias made two pairs especially for me, which I have found to serve me perfectly. By the use of his optometer he is enabled to adapt glasses most minutely to the eye. I most cheerfully recommend Mr. Tobias to all having occasion to use glasses, and bear my testimony as to his skill as an optician.
